Narragansett Council Boy Scouts Hosting Second Virtual “Cooped Up Campfire”, Featuring Special Guests from Government, Sports and Local Radio

Over 300 Scouts and their Families Attended the First “Cooped Up Campfire”

Rhode Island and Southeastern Massachusetts – The Narragansett Council, Boy Scouts of America are hosting their second virtual “Cooped Up Campfire” this Saturday, May 9, for all Scouts and families across the Narragansett Council. This virtual event will mimic a typical evening around a campfire at Scout camp; Scouting songs will be sung, and original skits will be performed by Council staff and troops. Troops have been submitting original skits and songs, with the funniest and most creative videos being played at the Campfire.

The “Cooped Up Campfire” is back by popular demand after over 300 Scouts and their families joined the first campfire. Scouts are encouraged to wear their favorite camp t-shirt and toast some marshmallows for the occasion.

Scouts and their families will be greeted by videos from numerous special guests from Rhode Island and Massachusetts who are impressed with the Scouts’ transition to a virtual scouting program.

Media is welcome to join the Cooped Up Campfire live from the Narragansett Council’s Facebook page or stream on Zoom. Narragansett Council staff can be made available for comment about the “Cooped Up Campfire” and their transition to Virtual Scouting.
