

Chief Yawgoog’s Code of Honor

Yawgoog is a special place for Scouts...ALL Scouts.

Yawgoog Scout Reservation welcomes Scouts from across the world and from different ethnicities, races, religions, genders and backgrounds.

ALL SCOUTS that live according to Chief Yawgoog’s Code of Honor are welcome at Camp Yawgoog.

Yawgoog Scouts are the BEST SCOUTS and commit themselves to be

- Scouts with honor that strive to do their best to live up to the Scout Oath, Law, Outdoor Code, Slogan and Motto
- Trustworthy: Respect the privacy of other Scouts and adults in bathrooms, showers, tents and cabins/Adirondacks
- Courteous: Treat others with respect.
- Friendly: Say “Good Morning” each day with a smile. No name-calling, insults, or bad-natured teasing
- Clean: No jokes, insults, skits, or songs based on race, religion, ethnicity, gender, or abilities. Keep language clean
- Kind: Be welcoming to new Scouts and build up fellow Scouts
- Brave: Stand up for others. Admit mistakes and apologize when in the wrong.
- Reverent: Stand in silence and reverence when the bell tolls at noon to remember Scouts who died for God and country.

Yawgoog Scouts are “Upstanders”!

If you see someone be unkind to someone else, don’t be a bystander. Instead, Yawgoog Scouts are “UPSTANDERS”. If you see someone being treated unkindly: stop it and don’t join in. Speak up in defense of the person and report it to a trusted leader or adult such as your SPL or Scoutmaster.

Behavior that is found to be inconsistent with Chief Yawgoog’s Code of Honor or the values of Scouting, may result in discipline up to and including expulsion from Yawgoog Scout Reservation at the Scout’s own expense and could result in revocation of Scouting membership.
