Visit a National Park location

There are several locations across CT, MA & RI of National natural and historical importance, some right in our Council!

Here are a few suggestions, find more at www.findyourpark.com

Boston: Freedom Trail	Berkshires: Wild & Scenic Westfield River
New Bedford: Whaling City	MA/RI: Blackstone River Valley
Cape Cod: National Seashore	Newport: Touro Synagogue
Providence: Roger Williams National Memorial	Concord/Lexington: Minuteman National Park

Several locations have closed or adjusted visitor services due to COVID, but many have self guided or virtual options available.

Please plan your visit accordingly!

Do A Good Turn

Here are some ideas to get you started:

- Deliver groceries to an elderly neighbor
- Write a card or letter to a nursing home resident
- Write a thank you note to a hospital worker
- Pick up trash in your local park
- Do a project for your local school through the Adopt-a-School program

Find a Geocache

What is a Geocache? Geocaching is a real-world, outdoor treasure hunting game! Using GPS coordinates, navigate to find geocache containers hidden at specific locations. You may be surprised to find many in your neighborhood, or on your favorite hiking trail!

Find geocache locations at www.geocaching.com. Happy hunting!

Here are some awesome ones that we've found!

John H Chaffee Nature Preserve, N Kingstown RI
 Norman Bird Sanctuary, Middletown RI
 Neutaconkanut Hill, Providence RI
 The Sawmill, Acushnet MA
 Frank Knowles Little River Reserve, S Dartmouth MA
 Gilbert Hills State Forest, Foxborough MA
