- Yawgoog will be opening its gates this fall for eight weekends with the opportunity for camping AND program. Scouts BSA units will be able to sign up and come weekend camping at Yawgoog while also receiving some of Yawgoog's top tier program. Along with meals provided from the dining hall! Scouts will have the opportunity to work on Scout, Tenderfoot, Second and First Class Requirements at The New Frontier Center. A waterfront will be open with the opportunity to complete the Swimming Merit Badge, go free swimming or boating around Yawgoog Pond in Kayaks, Canoes or Paddleboards. The Crafts Center will be offering Basketry and Leatherwork Merit Badges. And the rifle range will be open for free shoot as well.

The cost for the weekend is $150 per person. Units will be allowed two leaders free. Camperships will be available by contacting us by email at: campyawgoog@scouting.org. There is a $50 deposit required when registering for each person and the balance will be due upon arrival at camp.

Numbers are limited to only 125 people per weekend more information is available on the Yawgoog website at www.yawgoog.org.

Adventure Base Camp presents: ADVENTURE BOXES

- Adventure Boxes are an easy way to deliver Scouting anywhere! Whether your den is meeting in person, virtually or not at all, the Adventure Box provides the materials and resources necessary to complete each Cub Scout rank.
- Families have faced so many challenges this year. For Scouting families one of those challenges has been providing a Scouting program. Unit leaders and parents have persevered and found creative ways to keep scouts involved. Adventure Boxes are designed to deliver a hands-on, challenging and accessible program that will make it easier for families and packs to continue Scouting.
- There are two boxes for each rank. Each box includes materials and resources for a total of 4-6 Cub Adventures (required and elective). Both rank boxes will provide a full year of program.
